

Denny Triangle

Project:

The complete structure demolition and asbestos abatement of Loyal in and adjacent office space in Seattle, WA. Automated dust suppression cannons were used to aid workers in managing dust generation. Processed material from the parking garage demolition was used to help stabilize the ground after the project was complete. Total project size was $750,000 with 3 Ascendent excavators on-site.

